This would make a lovely family home.

To the ground floor through the front garden is a spacious hallway leading to the large through lounge. The kitchen/diner has modern cream wall and floor units and space for dining table.

Off the kitchen there is a large storage larder and cupboard. The rear door leads to a lovely enclosed rear garden with paved and lawned areas.

The first floor has a very large master bedroom, one double bedroom, single bedroom and a modern bathroom with white three piece suite, shower and bath.

The property has just undergone complete decoation throughout and new grey flooring.

Externally to the property there is a driveway and garage.

A great location with walking distance to the popular marina and Beeston town centre.

Must be seen
