- 24ft Living Room
- Beautiful Landscaped Rear Garden
- Carport & Garage
- Modern Kitchen & Bathroom
- Popular Location
- Two Double Bedrooms
- Viewing Highly Recommended
- Traditional Detached House

A beautifully maintained and well loved detached home, this property truly is a fine example of a home offering plenty of living space in a traditional and easy on the eye home with plenty of kerb appeal and a modern kitchen, bathroom and a staggeringly sized living & dining room with fitted log burner.

The internal accommodation comprises an entrance hall with access into a large 24ft open plan lounge & dining, sleek & stylish fully fitted modern yet timeless kitchen with shaker style units and a conservatory which offers access into the garage and car port respectively. To the first floor landing there are two double bedrooms and a modern well-proportioned family bathroom.

Externally, the property stands proudly on a surprisingly quiet residential road which offers a wealth of convenience due to its proximity to handy amenities including well serviced bus routes offering excellent access into Nottingham City centre and many other surrounding areas. The plot itself has a secure lockable front gate with low level brick wall giving it a real classy kerb appeal. There are double opening doors that give access into the car port and then further into garage. To the rear of the property the garden is beautifully finished and extremely low maintenance with a mixture between stone chipped borders, artificial lawn and a pleasant selection of established planting which help to soften the space perfectly.
