A picture-perfect traditional home with the perfect blend of contemporary charm. This magnificent Edwardian terraced house is a credit to the current owners who are now offering this absolutely immaculate home to the market and would be ideally suited for those buyers looking for a turnkey home to move straight in and simply just enjoy.

The charming character has been perfectly harnessed with in keeping neutral décor and other internal finishings, with the property enjoying excellent high ceilings, large bay to the front reception room and large windows throughout which allows a wonderful amount of natural light to pour into the property. The kitchen & bathroom have both been fully modernised and even the rear garden is a true beauty which has been well planned and thought out by the owners who have landscaped the garden perfectly and softened with well stocked borders full of established plants and shrubs.

The internal accommodation is incredibly spacious and comprises two reception rooms and an extended dining kitchen with a stunning central view straight down that beautiful garden and comes fitted with sleek & stylish fitted units. To the first-floor landing there are two generous double bedrooms and a huge bathroom with four-piece suite including a double walk-in shower and a separate bath.

Externally as touched on a little above is again as equally well maintained and looked after as the internal having a neat and tidy frontage with small boundary wall and gated entrance opening toward the front entrance door and the rear garden truly is a thing of beauty and rarely found having an initial patio sitting area with small step up an well maintained lawn with borders running down each side stacked full of established plants and shrubs with the boundaries being securely enclosed by recently upgraded boundary fencing. To the bottom of the garden there is a cosy hidden patio sitting area again sheltered by some planting and two access doors into an ever so handy external store room.

All in all we cannot stress how imperative an internal inspection is of this property as a home of this standard that offers so much at an affordable price, is certain to not be available for long.
